

WILDFLOWER SEED BALLS

Our wildflower seed balls are a budget and eco-friendly promotional choice that's designed to make an impact! Enclosed within an FSC® certified matchbox, each seed ball is filled with a rich mix of wildflower seeds that we've responsibly grown and harvested from our own site, all set to bloom into a vibrant floral display. Perfectly suited for trade shows, eco-focused campaigns, or unique company giveaways, these seed balls offer a practical and cost effective way for your clients to showcase their commitment to the environment. Planting couldn't be easier - simply scatter them on soil, add water, and await the flourishing transformation. Beyond their aesthetic appeal, these seed balls present a compelling narrative for your clients' events and help highlight the sustainable ethos of their brands. An affordable way to promote eco-awareness and create memorable moments.
